The Shareholders' Meeting is chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or, if absent or otherwise prevented from so doing, by the Board member appointed by the Board or, if absent or otherwise prevented from so doing, by the oldest Board member, or if absent or otherwise prevented from so doing, by the person appointed by a majority of the shareholders present.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

ARTICLE 16

The Company is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of not less than five members and no more than nine. The Shareholders' Meeting sets the number of the Board members within these limits.

The members stay in office for the period set by the Shareholders' Meeting, which may not be longer than three years, and may be reappointed.

If because of resignations or other reasons a majority of Board members lapse, the whole Board is considered lapsed and a shareholders' meeting must be immediately called to appoint a new Board of Directors.

The Shareholders' Meeting may change the number of Board members during the lifetime of the Board, within the numerical limits indicated in this article; if the Shareholders' Meeting increases the number, the new Board members are appointed according to the provisions contained in this article. The term of the members so appointed ceases at the same time as that of the members already appointed.

The members are appointed by the Shareholders' Meeting on the basis of lists in which the candidates are listed in numerical order.

The right to present such lists is held by the Board of Directors and Shareholders who individually or with other shareholders represent at least 2% of the voting shares for the ordinary shareholders' meeting.

Each shareholder may present individually or with other shareholders one list only and every candidate may appear in one list only, or he/she will be ineligible.

The list presented by the Board of Directors and those presented by shareholders must be deposited at the Company's Head Office and published in at least two Italian national daily newspapers, one of which must be a financial paper, at least twenty and ten days respectively before the date of the Shareholders' Meeting on first call.

The title of shares necessary to present a list shall be demonstrated by presenting at or sending to the Company's Head Office at least five days before the Shareholders' Meeting first call a copy of the certificates issued by the appropriate authorities. Together with each list, within the time limits indicated above, statements must be presented containing each candidate's acceptance of nomination, confirming that there is no cause for ineligibility or incompatibility, as well as the possession of the requisites which are legally necessary for performing the task in question, plus the CV of each candidate.

Each person entitled to vote may vote for one list only.

The elections of the Board members proceed as follows:

- a) Seven tenths of the members are taken from the list which obtains the most votes, in the numerical order they were listed, with numbers which are not whole rounded down;
- b) the other members are taken from the other lists; to this end, the votes obtained from these lists are subsequently divided by 1, 2 or 3 according to the number of members to be appointed. The quotients thus obtained are progressively assigned to the candidates on these lists, according to the order respectively envisaged. The quotients assigned in this way are then set out in descending order. Those with the highest quotients are accordingly appointed. In the event of candidates having the same quotient, the candidate is appointed from a list which has so far not had any members appointed or which has had the lowest number of members appointed. If this is the first member to be appointed with this method and so no lists have yet supplied a member or if the lists have all contributed the same number of members, the candidate will be appointed from the list which has received the most votes. In the case of votes cast being the same and the quotient assigned to the candidates also being the same, the Shareholders' Meeting will vote again and the member obtaining the highest number of votes will be appointed.

- c) Members who, for whatever reason, are not appointed as per the procedures indicated above, are appointed by the Meeting, which decides with the majority legally applicable.

ARTICLE 17

The Board of Directors may appoint the Chairman from among its members if the Shareholders' Meeting has not already done so, as well as the Secretary, who does not have to be a board member.

ARTICLE 18

The Board of Directors is convened by the Chairman whenever he thinks it appropriate or when at least two Board members asks in writing for it to meet. The request must indicate the reasons for convening the Board. If within thirty days from the request the Board has not met to discuss the matters and the request came from at least two Board members, the Board of Directors or, if this is not possible the Chairman of the Board of Auditors, will without delay convene a Shareholders' Meeting to discuss the matter indicated in the request for a board meeting.

The Board of Directors meets in the location indicated in the notice of the meeting. The notice is sent at least five days before the meeting; the Board of Directors will define any other elements regarding the holding of its meetings.

The Board of Directors' Meetings may be held in video conference on condition that all participants are identifiable and can follow the discussion and participate in real time in the discussions. The meeting is considered as having taken place where the Chairman and Secretary are located.

The meetings of the Board of Directors are chaired by the Chairman; in the event that he or she is absent or unable to participate, the oldest managing director present will chair the meeting, or if he or she is absent or unable to participate, the oldest board member present.

ARTICLE 19

The Board of Directors has powers of ordinary and extraordinary administration and may carry out all that is necessary to implement and achieve the corporate purpose, with the exception of those actions which the law and these By-Laws reserve for the Shareholders' Meeting.

All such information is in any case provided at the meetings of the Board of Directors, held at least quarterly.

Copies of minutes certified by the Chairman and the Secretary are valid for legal purposes.

At least the first candidate for each section must be enrolled in the auditors register and have carried out legal control of accounts for at least three years.

From the list which has obtained the most votes two Effective Auditors and one Alternate Auditor are taken in order. The other Effective Auditor and Alternate Auditor are nominated using the procedure set out in Article 16, line b), to apply separately to each of the sections into which the other lists are divided.

The Chairmanship of the Board of Auditors will be given to the first candidate on the list containing the most votes.

In case of substitution of an auditor taken from the list obtaining the most votes, the Alternate Auditor from the same list will take his place; in the case of substitution of an auditor taken from the other lists the Alternate Auditor appointed will take his place under the procedures set out in Article 16.

The auditors not appointed for whatever reason according to the procedures indicated above are appointed by the Shareholders' Meeting which decides with the majority legally applicable.
