Snam: positive outcome of the Tender Offer on its notes, purchased for a total nominal amount of about € 538 million

San Donato Milanese, 5 December 2018 – Snam (rated Baa2 by Moody's, BBB+ by S&P and BBB+ by Fitch) launched, on 28 November 2018, a Tender Offer addressed to holders of some notes already issued by Snam under the Euro Medium Term Note Programme, which was positively completed on 4 December 2018 with the purchase of notes for a total nominal amount of €538,378,000.

The transaction is consistent with the optimization process of Snam's debt structure and cost of capital, in line with the company's targets.

The one completed today represents the last of four Liability Management exercises that, from 2015 to date, contributed to reduce Snam cost of debt from 2.4% in 2016 to 1.5% expected for 2018 year-end.

Based on the terms and conditions of the Tender Offer, the relevant results are listed in detail below:

- €1,250,000,000 3.500 per cent. Notes due 13 February 2020, of which €633,021,000 is outstanding (XS0853682069), for a total nominal amount of €107,304,000. Upon completion of the transaction the notes still outstanding will be in nominal amount of €525,717,000;
